

Aubrey Pearson

TOP PRODUCER KELLER WILLIAMS LONESTAR DFW

Aubrey Pearson, The Bespoke REALTOR®, is a native of Tennessee and received his B.S. in service management from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. He has 16 years of experience, beginning with real estate investing. His personal dedication to each deal, combined with his unique investment experience, contribute to a white-glove service across Texas. This elevated service for buyers includes an interactive tour of communities, car service, and opportunities at some of Dallas-Fort Worth's and Houston's most unique establishments. Most importantly, Pearson's clients receive a step-by-step explanation of their real estate transaction and detailed education beyond the deal. Sellers receive service that includes exclusive marketing tactics so their homes stand out from others as well as post-close introduction to advisors to best invest their proceeds. Investors benefit from Pearson's personal experience in owning more than 10 investment properties. His network becomes his clients' network, which includes resources to help them build their portfolios for short- and long-term profits from new construction, rentals, and home flipping. Whether buying, selling, or investing, Pearson offers a "Custom Approach To Your Real Estate Experience."
